

New Jersey Chapter

Meeting Announcement: June 29th, 2006

Date: June 12, 2006

To: Members & Guests of the NJ Chapter of the MSMA

Re: Upcoming Event

The NY Chapter of the Mail Systems Management Association (MSMA) together with the New Jersey Chapter of the MSMA is pleased to sponsor a luncheon that will include valuable information for attending members and guests. The theme for our June gathering is:

An MSMA Member's Guide to
"NETWORKING 101"

The seminar will feature one of the industry's foremost experts on service management, Mr. Mark Fallon, CMDSM. As President & CEO of The Berkshire Company, Mark helps his clients develop solutions using emerging technologies and expert leadership. His presentation will assist members and guests with honing the simple art of working to optimum levels by using the most valued of business tools – our relationships with people.

Networking 101 - Overview:

Just as the Internet successfully networks computers with other computers - regardless of make, model or background, you can successfully network with other people - regardless of title, profession or background. Learn how to build and maintain your business and personal networks to improve your chances of success in today's competitive marketplace.

Please join us as we continue to provide stepping stone seminars that will surely enhance your skills and broaden your knowledge. We look forward to seeing all of you, and please feel free to spread the word - bring a guest. Bring two guests. We are sure that you will enjoy yourself.

When: June 29th, 2006 from 12:00 to 2:00 PM

Where: Ann Taylor – The Spectrum Room
7 Times Square, 5th floor
New York, NY 10036

Admission: $30 for NY/NJ MSMA members - $40 for non-members & guests

Register by calling Anthony Gangi at (212) 989-1308 from 10am – 3pm M-F or register online at www.nymsma.org. NJ MSMA members please call Colleen Ritter at 201.329.7200 to register.

We look forward to seeing you!
